

There was plenty of work to do!

!

Even inexperienced volunteers were recruited to help chop, gather and stack the stalks.

But Neema still had enough energy to test a new jump rope received from our safari visitors!!

