We have featured in these six pages about half of the graduating students. If you could read each child's story, you would find they share similar challenges. Yet they all chose to work hard to pass the test, reaching for a chance to continue their education, knowing all the while that the chance was slim.

Our goal is to send as many students as possible to secondary school. Boarding school is preferable ($400), but regular school will work ($150).

Every contribution counts. Please consider reaching out to their reaching to give each child the chance for a better future.
